

De Vereenigde Effecten Compagnie

The public limited company De Vereenigde Effecten Compagnie supplies financial services to private and institutional investors, in the Netherlands as well as abroad, and offers its relations professional service. This service comprises asset management, consultancy and the transmission of orders.

De Vereenigde Effecten Compagnie is an organisation with employees who pursue a close relation with their clients and who dispose of very broad experience in the field of investment in bonds, shares and funds. De Vereenigde Effecten Compagnie is an Admitted Institution to the Euronext and is registered as a securities firm at the Netherlands Authority for the Financial Markets (‘Autoriteit Financiële Markten’ or ‘AFM’), as a participating institution at the Dutch Securities Institute (DSI) and is controlled by the De Nederlandsche Bank (DNB). De Vereenigde Effecten Compagnie is a ‘Niet Effecten Krediet Instelling’ or ‘NEKI’.